Package Design

This project is focused on appealing a potential buyer with a visual appealing design with connection to the flavor of the beer. With this attempt my style is present with the bold presentation and use of type in a creative way. With the logo's being fun and expressive creating memorable first impression can be the initial push for a buyer.

Visual Identity Design

Keeping with a versatile design and bold up in your face look this logo makes its presence known. The color palette is minimal but in contrast to the aggressiveness of the overall logo creates an emphasis on expression over color. The hues used to appeal to the outside enthusiast and sun bathers or the individual who prefer the life near or by water.

Designing a logo that can be used for every day wear to a sporting attire, my aim is to create design that can be prevalent in more than one setting.

Logo Design

The street wear fashion is an iconic style established in our popular culture and is a way of expression of their own individualness without having to say a word. Creating an espressive style this design and the bold stand-out presentation of the logo this piece can't be ignored it can only be noticed.

Being bold, loud, and having a strong presence is my style and it can create something that can't be missed. Having the balance of type can open up the type of applications that can be associated with the brand but and overall push for more usage of the brand name.

Keeping to my roots I find myself always returning to pencil and paper to try new techniques and release the ideas trapped inside the universe always in motion in my mind. The human form and the way body expression can be read is a skill, when used to create a piece of artwork it can tell a story which is read with observation. I use of vine charcoal to create a range of values that detail various weights of mass in the given space. Form and shape are going to be foundation but pushing the depth of the piece with value creates an atmosphere of space and dimension.

Illustrated Drop Cap

here were once a man and a woman who had long in vain wished for a child. At length the woman hoped that God was about to grant her desire. These people had a little window at the back of their house from which a splendid garden could be seen, which was full of the most beautiful flowers and herbs. It was, however, surrounded by a high wall, and no one dared to go into it because it belonged to an enchantress, who had great power and was dreaded by all the world.

One day the woman was standing by this window and looking down into the garden, when she saw a bed which was planted with the most beautiful rampion (rapunzel), and it looked so fresh and green that she longed for it, she quite pined away, and began to look pale and miserable. Then her husband was alarmed, and asked: 'What ails you, dear wife?' 'Ah,' she replied, 'if I can't eat some of the rampion, which is in the garden behind our house, I shall die.' The man, who loved her, thought: 'Sooner than let your wife die, bring her some of the rampion yourself, let it cost what it will.'

At twilight, he clambered down over the wall into the garden of the enchantress, hastily clutched a handful of rampion, and took it to his wife. She at once made herself a salad of it, and ate it greedily. It tasted so good to her--so very good, that the next day she longed for it vthree times as much as before. If he was to have any rest, her husband must once more descend into the garden.

In the gloom of evening therefore, he let himself down again; but when he had clambered down the wall he was terribly afraid, for he saw the enchant-

While keeping my style present, I incorporate the story and nature in a design that is beautiful and elegant. Illustrative drop caps from old master's gave me the inspiration to be bold and make a presence while having the type compliment the overall design. The layout portion is very eligable and keeping to the curve of the illustration allowing the padding to do its job providing breathing room. I have multiple styles that I can allow the text to compliment and strong layout keeps the flow of the story steady.

Advertising

The use of attention grabbing graphic elements while being bold and clear will get your event notice. What is done here is a event that the theme is related to the promotion. The main image consist of the car but with the background, the atmosphere is created bringing in the viewer to a cyber punk setting. With that being a big culture interest this will bring viewers in and bring intrigue to the event that is here. With directions on what to expect on the lower section, being clear is key so that no confusion occurs and prevent negative feedback. Bright color palette and sleek car make this poster slightly futuristic but invokes a sense of movement.

Album Design

The bright and colorful rythem that is from this record is what I wanted to connect with in the overall design. Bright color palette is very custom in the genre and time period that this is from but with a more modern take on the design. The trees and hill like landscape give a setting but with the sun setting give more of a time period that this is and with the music being a nightclub dance music this fits perfect. The emotion provoked should be that of a moving type motion or a feeling of a cool breezy evening coming night time.
